DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Figs. 9-15, claims 1, 5-8 and 11-17, in the reply filed on 09/26/2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that multiple examinations on the separate inventions would be repetitive and excessive. This is not found persuasive because applicant fails to argue how the separate inventions are not mutually exclusive species and that the species are obvious variants.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

It is noted that claim 5 recites structure not found in the description of the elected embodiment of Figs. 9-15 (e.g., first and second flexible "crossed straps"). Therefore, the Examiner has withdrawn claim 5 from consideration.

Claims 6 and 7 also recite structure not found in the description of the elected embodiment (e.g., upper and lower "horizontal straps"). The Examiner has also withdrawn claims 6 and 7 from consideration.

Claims 8, 11, 12 and 17 recite structure not found in the description of the elected embodiment (e.g., "the third compartment being attached along a midportion behind the first and second compartment"). The Examiner has also withdrawn claims 8, 11, 12 and 17 from consideration.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "212" has been used to designate both a tank cylinder (Fig. 13) and a strap material edge (Figs. 14 and 15). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 3782

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 5,447,216 to Freyvogel. See Fig. 5.

5. Claims 1 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,805,225 to Freedman.

Freedman discloses a container bag (10) comprising first and second compartments (50, 60) attached to each other at rings (44). Each compartment has a flexible and pliable strap frame (61) and includes tubular containers made from pliable and flexible mesh material. The container bag further comprises a top lid (16) of pliable and flexible material that can be positioned from a flap open position to a closed position and a bottom cover (20) of pliable and flexible material closing the bottom of the container bag.

Having met the structure of applicant's claims, the container bag of Freedman is capable of receiving cylindrical tanks into the first and second compartments to be stored in an upright vertical position and a horizontal position. Furthermore, the handles on the Freedman container bag allow it to be handled and carried by a single user.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 16 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

8. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
